

CHAMPAGNE
JACQUESSON
— FAMILLE CRÉDITÉE —

Founded in 1798 and still pushing boundaries today, Jacquesson is one of the oldest and yet most innovative houses in Champagne.

The Mancini family have been lovingly tending Pinot here for five generations. The terroir produces as good a Pinot as you will find outside the top crus of Burgundy.

Domaine
Bernard MILLOT

A fourth-generation winemaker based in Meursault.

The Antinori family have been producing wine in Tuscany for six centuries, Antinori has become Tuscany's - arguably Italy's - pre-eminent wine producer.

One of the best-loved names in wine, Ridge has achieved iconic status due to, mature vineyards farmed with great care; minimum-intervention winemaking; production decisions guided by continual blind tasting; and total transparency through ingredient labelling.

Since 1982, Gary has poured his energy, enthusiasm into the making of distinguished wine using meticulous, state-of-the-art viticulture. In just a few decades, this man is known as "the new face of American Pinot Noir,"

Dr Bailey Carrodus after several years of careful research, in 1969 purchased land in the Yarra Valley, and in 1973 produced the first vintages of his now iconic wines.

FINE WINE SELECTION

Champagne

1. Champagne Jacquesson Cuvée 743 Champagne, France 2015 bottle £90

Aromas of fresh bread, ripe apples and white flowers give way to an ample, almost creamy palate offering flavours of apricots, spices and toasted hazelnuts, carried perfectly by the luxurious mousse and fine, lingering finish.

White Wine

2. Impero Brut de Pinot Noir, Fattoria Mancini Marches, Italy 2019 bottle £65

Impressive and distinctive wine, showing spice from the wood and bright red apple/peach aromas. Broad structure in the mouth, not unlike a Côte de Nuits white - balanced and positive, with a herbal freshness.

3. Puligny-Montrachet, Bernard Millot Burgundy, France 2017 bottle £90

Bright and beautiful, this Puligny-Montrachet from the small family domaine of Bernard Millot offers intense aromas of lime leaf and grilled nuts. The palate is concentrated yet lithely structured, with great precision and focus.

4. Cervaro della Sala, Antinori Umbria, Italy 2019 ½ bottle £50 / bottle £95

Intense, complex aroma with notes of white flowers and flint balanced by a hint of vanilla. Full-bodied and well-structured palate with notes of toast, citrus and mineral. Elegant and persistent in the mouth, this is a wine with a long life ahead of it.

Red Wine

5. Ridge Lytton Springs California, USA 2018 ½ bottle £42

Lytton Springs follows an approach to express a different terroir via a slightly different varietal mix. With a denser soil and higher proportion of Petite Sirah, Lytton Springs is a richer, earthier, more tannic wine.

6. Lucia Pinot Noir, Pisoni California, USA 2018 bottle £69

With a gorgeous blend of refined structure and succulent fruit, this complex Pinot Noir offers cherry and boysenberry aromas alongside sage and spice notes. Displaying both intensity and purity.

7. Dry Red Wine No 2, Yarra Yering Victoria, Australia 2015 bottle £83

Blackberry and tar scents with some earthy notes and dried herbs in the background. Medium-bodied, yet firmly structured, this is pleasantly restrained with ample fruit leading into a pleasantly earthy and mineral finish.

8. Ridge Estate Cabernet Sauvignon California, USA 2017 bottle £115

Saturated purple in color. Aromas of cassis, blueberry, cola, licorice, and sweet oak. Ripe blackberry fruit entry, full bodied, rich textures, exotic spice roasted coffee, and toasted oak aftertaste. Complex, long, sensuous finish.
